NORTH HAMPTON OUTBUILDINGS
Pinopolis vicinity, Berkeley County, South Carolina

Owner: Santee-Cooper Hydroelectric and Navigation Project

Date of erection: Eighteenth century, perhaps contemporary with original house

Present condition: Good; in danger of inundation

Description:

The outbuildings at North Hampton are unusually complete. There are two balancing two-room cottages in the rear, flanking the main house. These have widely overhanging front eaves protecting the two doors (one to each room) and central chimneys. They are of frame, whitewashed, with hand-split shingle roofs. One of the rooms is supposed to have been the kitchen for the main house, but its small size makes this unlikely. Beyond to the north and east are slaves' quarters and smoke house, and to the north and west the barn and a shed, the latter of squared logs.
